

SALVI Announces...

ITER ROMANUM 2010

a unique tour of Rome - tantum Latine!
July 1-8 2010

SALVI (Septentrionale Americanum Latinitatis Vivae Institutum, or North American Institute for Living Latin Studies), proudly presents Iter Romanum—a full-immersion Latin week in Rome.

Program Dates: July 1-8, 2010.

Eligibility: You are eligible to participate in Iter Romanum if you have already learned Latin on paper (at a minimum the equivalent of two years of traditional college-level or four years of a high school Latin program) and are an alumna/us of at least one full-immersion Latin workshop. It is not necessary to have completed a SALVI-run Rusticatio; alumnae/i of other Latin workshops (Father Reginald Foster's Schola Aestiva, the Conventiculum Vasintoniense or Kentuckiense, etc.) are most welcome. The important thing is that you have had some previous experience speaking Latin in an extended workshop setting. If you have not had previous experience, you will be considered only if you can demonstrate comparable experience and/or provide a letter of recommendation from an experienced speaker of Latin who can attest to your qualifications and preparedness to be a full participant in the program.

Location: We will reside at the Ospizio Salesiano Sacro Cuore.

Itinerary (subject to change): Roman Forum, Palatine Hill and Circus Maximus, Domus Aurea, Colosseum, St. Peter's Basilica, Vatican necropolis and the tomb of St. Peter, Vatican Museum, Villa Borghese, Ostia Antica.

Cost: $ 1600.00 per person, covering registration, reading materials, museum and site entrance fees, transportation for any tour-related activities, lodging, breakfast and one other meal per day (usually dinner). Not covered in the registration cost are: travel to/from Rome, ground transportation to/from airports, one meal per day (usually lunch), snacks, alcoholic beverages (i.e., wine or beer with meals). There is no application fee, but a non-refundable deposit of $200 is required with your application in order to hold your space in the trip. The full tuition balance will be due within two weeks of receiving confirmation of admission. If you apply within a month of the start date of Iter Romanum, the full amount will be due immediately upon confirmation of admission. Applications will be accepted on a first-come-first-served basis.

We highly recommend that you wait to hear from us with confirmation that the trip is going ahead before making your travel arrangements to Rome.

How to Apply: Our application process is paper-based: print the application (2 pages), complete it, and send it to:

SALVI
1252 11th Street #107
Santa Monica, CA 90401

Submitting an application does not guarantee admission to Iter Romanum. Students will be notified of acceptance after a review of their application. Invariably there are more qualified applicants than there are spaces, so the earlier you submit your application the better.

All admitted participants will complete a more detailed health questionnaire one month before the trip and will be required to sign a liability waiver for insurance purposes. We will also provide a media release form asking participants' consent to use any and all photos and video taken at Iter Romanum for use on our website and/or for other promotional purposes. Any of these forms may be requested in advance.

Lead tour guide:

Nancy E. Llewellyn is Associate Professor of Latin at Wyoming Catholic College. She holds a Ph.D. from UCLA, an M.A. from the Pontifical Salesian University in Rome (where she also studied at the Gregorian University with Reginald Foster), and a B.A. from Bryn Mawr College. Since 1998, she has led numerous workshops on spoken Latin for students and teachers in California, Michigan, New Jersey, Oklahoma, and Virginia.
